Stickley, Gustav

June 6, 1919

Editor, "The Craftsman"

3

THE CRAFTSMAN
41 WEST 34TH STREET
NEW YORK CITY

American Numismatic Society,
156th St., West of Broadway,
New York.
Gentlemen:-

Mr. Stickley asks me to say that in spite of his interest in the work of the Numismatic Society he is not in a position at present to do anything outside of the work that he has already taken up, even to the extent of joining one more association. He has asked me to express his gratification that you should think him a worth-while member, but that for the present at least it is not possible for him to avail himself of the opportunity.

Sincerely yours,
THE CRAFTSMAN per Asso- Editor

June 6, 1910,
MFR-CHG